

MARTINHO PITA

Martinho Pita is a Creative based in Lisbon.

Graduated with a degree in Architecture and The Arts from ECA (Edinburgh College of Art) in 2007 worked in several architecture offices such as Aires Mateus and João Pedro Falcão de Campos, Lisbon.

In 2009 moved to India to work with Urbanouveau* and Sparcindia in the development and implementation of "Incremental Housing Strategy" in the slums of Yerawada, Pune. In 2010 joined the architectural office MVRDV, in Rotterdam, and worked with Urbanouveau* in the "Connecting-Stockholm" project in the Architecture Museum of Stockholm. During 2011 returns to Lisbon to work on another project with Urbanouveau* called TISA (The Informal School of Architecture) along with 50 multidisciplinary students in Cova do Vapor, a fisherman village in the outskirts of Lisbon.

Currently living in Lisbon, created Martinho Pita Studio working solo and in collaboration for different artistic fields, product design, architecture and the implementation of social strategies. His works show an expressive combination of tradition, innovation and passion.

"Bichos" is his first adventure in the product design world and participated in several exhibitions including "Futur Archaïque" (D' Days) by Yves Mirand, Atelier de Passage du Retz, Paris, "100% design 2013" in London and was recently chosen for "Talents" to be shown in "Ambient 2014" in Frankfurt.